IMPORTANT INFORMATION

The Wedding Ceremony:

Couples can choose a non-denominational civil service conducted by a Registrar or a traditional Buddhist 'Poruwa' ceremony. The more colourful 'Poruwa' ceremony can be tailored to your requirements. Note: You cannot have a formal Christian wedding ceremony in a garden in Sri Lanka, only civil services or Buddhist ceremony. You can have a Christian blessing by a clergyman; however you will need to be in Sri Lanka months prior to meet with the minister. Services conducted by a registrar take about 15 minutes and traditional Buddhists ceremonies take up to 45 minutes.

Legal Requirements:

Weddings can be conducted from Monday to Saturday excluding bank holidays. The couple must be 18 years or over. There is a minimum residency of 5 days i.e. couples must be in Sri Lanka 3 days prior to the wedding day. Parental consent is required if under 21.

The following documentation is required in advance:

- (i) Birth certificate
- (ii) Valid 10-year passport
- (iii) If single, an affidavit confirming marital status from solicitor
- (iv) If divorced, a decree absolute with court stamp of the previous marriage and an affidavit to declare marital status stamped by a notary
- (v) If widowed, death certificate of former spouse and marriage certificate
- (vi) If adopted, an adoption certificate
- (vii) If name changed by Deed Poll, legal proof stamped and signed by a solicitor
- (viii) A document with full names and address of bride, groom and both sets of parents
- (ix) A document with the details of the bride and groom's professions and that of their fathers

Marriage Certificate:

Your wedding certificate will be issued in Sinhala and will need to be translated into English in order for it to be legally recognised in your own country. In most cases the Sinhala wedding certificate can be issued immediately, the English translation can take up to one week. If you would like more than one certificate then please request this in advance and we will make the necessary arrangements.
